Pixelmetrix wins Frost & Sullivan Emerging Communications Test & Measurement Company of the Year Award

Singapore, August 21, 2009 – Pixelmetrix, the global expert in Preventive Monitoring for digital television and IPTV networks, bagged the 2009 Frost & Sullivan Asia Pacific Industrial Technologies Award - Emerging Communications Test & Measurement Company of the Year.

“From humble beginnings back in 1999, Pixelmetrix has expanded its Test, Measurement & Monitoring solutions to cater to the needs of television broadcasters worldwide. Now, we have a multitude of integrated solutions for the Satellite, Terrestrial, Cable, IPTV, Content and Network Management market segments. From our Singapore headquarters, we serve our customers in all the seven continents, including Antarctica. I would like to dedicate this award to the team for their creativity and tenacity in keeping up with market demands and delighting our customers in good or bad times,” said Danny Wilson.

Pixelmetrix develops a host of IPTV and Preventive Monitoring systems that offer unique attributes and versatility, allowing operators to achieve end-to-end visibility and keep tabs on their network architecture.

The annual Frost & Sullivan Asia Pacific Industrial Technologies Awards, in its fourth consecutive year, recognizes outstanding performance by companies in the Electronics & Security, Industrial Automation & Process Control, Energy & Power Systems, Chemicals, Materials & Food as well as the Environment & Building Technologies industries within this dynamic region.
